

#Machine Calibrations

Specific parameters such as the speed at which the machine works to make precise products. Deciding on the optimal parameters is largely a matter of experience and documenting them allows other workers to set them as well.

